UGA A CONFRONTO / UGA COMPARISON

Marchesi Antinori

La storia di Marchesi Antinori è da sempre legata a doppio filo con il Chianti Classico, territorio che ha dato inizio alla propria tradizione vitivinicola e che ha accompagnato la famiglia negli oltre sei secoli di attività. Un territorio in cui la famiglia Antinori ha vissuto e in cui ha da sempre creduto, cercando di esaltare le peculiari caratteristiche di questo straordinario terroir: talvolta con scelte innovative, talvolta con decisioni coraggiose, ma sempre mantenendo inalterato il rispetto per le tradizioni e per il territorio.
Nel corso degli anni, dalla volontà di valorizzare ogni singola sfumatura di questo territorio, nascono quattro vini guidati dall'utilizzo del Sangiovese come unico interprete e capaci di rappresentare le differenze di quattro terroir distinti: Castellina, Gaiole, San Casciano e San Donato.

The history of Marchesi Antinori has always been inextricably linked to Chianti Classico, a territory where their viticultural traditions began and continued to flourish over six centuries of passion and dedication to the art of winemaking. The Antinori family has lived in and has always firmly believed in this territory and has contributed to enhancing this unique terroir's exceptional characteristics; sometimes with innovative choices and other times with bold decisions, but always upholding the utmost respect for traditions and the land.
Over the years, born from a desire to develop every single nuance of this territory, four wines were crafted, guided by the use of Sangiovese as their sole interpreter and capable of representing the differences of four distinct terroirs: Castellina, Gaiole, San Casciano and San Donato.

STAG'S LEAP WINE CELLARS

Stag's Leap is one of the undisputed icons of the Napa Valley. The winery was founded in 1970, and their 1973 Cabernet won the famous Judgement of Paris tasting, beating first-and second-growth bordeaux. Since then they have become one of the most lauded and soughtafter wine producers anywhere in the world. The winery is located in the Stags Leap District, a small sub-division in the south-eastern Napa Valley known for producing particularly elegant, ageworthy wine. Over the last five decades, Stag's Leap Wine Cellars have witnessed the dizzying proliferation of Napa Valley vineyards, yet amidst all their new neighbours have retained their own, compelling voice.
